

20 EXAMPLES OF Process Praise

YOU MIGHT HEAR IN THE ART ROOM

- 1 I appreciate that you washed the paintbrushes and put them away “hair in the air.”
 - 2 You are putting a lot of effort into getting the proportions of your figure just right.
 - 3 You worked hard on shading your sphere.
 - 4 Your colored pencil blending is coming along. I can tell you have been practicing.
 - 5 Your sketchbook shows how much your drawing skills have developed this semester.
 - 6 I see that you already know how to mix the secondary colors. Let me show you some more advanced color mixing techniques.
 - 7 That was a creative way to solve that problem.
 - 8 You are on the right track to figuring out how to stabilize your sculpture. Have you considered making the base a different shape?
 - 9 Your practice rolling coils really paid off.
 - 10 I admire how you are sticking with this painting.
 - 11 Look how many ideas you came up with during our brainstorming session. You have a lot of great options to choose from.
 - 12 I noticed you enjoyed the printing process. Let me show you another technique.
 - 13 I see a big difference between the self-portrait you did at the beginning of the year and the one you just finished.
 - 14 I noticed that you helped Jeremy clean up his spill. Thank you for helping keep our space neat and tidy.
 - 15 You worked hard on your weaving. I can see you used 4 different techniques.
 - 16 You are on the right track to figuring out how to build the armature for your sculpture. Have you tried incorporating some wire?
 - 17 I can see you played around with the composition for your still-life. You ended up with something dynamic.
 - 18 Look how far you’ve come with your photo editing skills.
 - 19 That was an interesting and creative method you developed to bind your book.
 - 20 I admire how you challenged yourself to explore some new jewelry-making techniques.
-